Charges in regard to A.P.HOUSEFED

Charge-(1) He deposited huge amount of the federation in the private Coop Banks in preference to Nationalized Banks with mollified intention.

Charge- (2) He spent an amount of Rs.24,290 from the Budget of AP HOUSEFED for the repairs to the Official car of CC&RCS By deviating the procedure.

The Charged Officer in his written statement of defense, has denied the charges in respect of APSCLCSF Ltd., stating that all the amounts were spent by him as Managing Director, after taking the approval of the PIC/Managing Committees during their respective periods, and it is not correct to say that there was no approval of the Managing Committee for the amounts spent, and requested to drop the further action. He also denied the charges in respect of A.P. HOUSEFED, as the charges are made against him by the official who were jealous of his efficiency and honesty and straight forwardness and independent behavior and were intended to cause harassment and mental agony and disturb his peaceful life and the charges are baseless as well as motivated and requested the Government to drop the all charges.

Government have examined the written statement of defense of the charged Officer in the light of the material available and decided to accept the written statement of defense of Sri G.Limbadri Rao, Additional Registrar (Retd) considering that the charges are not of serious nature and there is no misappropriation of any amount by the Charged Officer, and decided to drop further action in the disciplinary case against Sri G.Limbadri Rao, Addl. Registrar (Retd).

Accordingly further action against Sri G. Limbadri Rao, Addl.Registrar (Retd) in this case is hereby dropped.
